Seminar to give advice on drugs in workplace

AN innovative seminar giving information and advice about drugs in the workplace is taking place next month.

It is aimed at people who employ any number of staff and aims to be original, informative and topical.

The event, organised by Drug Sense UK, takes place from around 10am until 5pm on Tuesday 20 November at Raven Hall Country House, in Ravenscar.

There will be an introduction to the problem of drugs in the work place, information on illegal drugs, tips on identifying and solving the problem and the chance to ask questions. The cost per person is £79 which includes refreshments throughout the day and a two-course hot and cold buffet. Booking forms must be completed and returned by 9 November and are available by contacting (01723) 369397 or dave.parvin@drugsenseuk.co.uk
